Addresses & Lectures presented in London First Principals Chapter No. 2712

Where available, to download lectures please click on link.

September 2021   Christopher Clark PGSN gave a talk entitled "Reginald Davis – Great War Hero".

September 2019   John E Burnapp gave a talk entitled "So Who Was Zerubbabel".

May 2019   Edward James Rochead, gave a talk entitled "What is a Masonic Steward?"

January 2019   Christopher Clark PGSN Dep Met Grand Supt, set the scene for what was to be a very delightful, humorous and informative interpretation of an interview of an Irish Freemason named Laurence Dermott, (1721- 1791), played by Donald Mcgarr. The interviewer was played by Ian Currans, PGSwdB, AMetGSupt., wearing a facemask of Graham Redman.

September 2018   Richard T Greenhill (AsstMetGSupt) spoke on the "Mysteries of the Triangle".

May 2018   Edward James Rochead, a Chartered Mathematician and defence expert, spoke on "The Platonic Solids - their Symbolism and Science".

January 2018   Padraig Belton spoke on "Padraig's Progress with Press Pass and Passport", in an evening with two lectures. Padraig reflected ethically and masonically on his work as an international conflict journalist.

     The Rev'd Timothy L'Estrange (2ndMetGPrin) spoke on "The Janitor's Toast", exploring the true identity of the 'most important toast of the evening' and themes in the concept of a safe return to one's native country.

September 2017   The Rev'd Timothy L'Estrange (2ndMetGPrin) spoke on "The First Words", demonstrating differences in ritual forms of opening the Chapter, and explaining the history of the oldest piece of Masonic ritual still in regular use.

May 2017   John Hamill (President LGRA) spoke on "Masonry Universal", with illustrations from his international relations work in the office of the Grand Chancellor.

May 2013   Christopher Clark (DepMetGSupt) spoke on "The Demon Drink", outlining the historic links between Masonry and the Temperance Movement.

More to be added soon